

PRELIMINARY CALL FOR PAPERS

The 1st International Workshop on Enterprise Architecture Challenges and Responses To be held in conjunction with SNPD2009

May 27-29, 2009
Daegu Exhibition and Convention Center, Daegu, Korea

The International Workshop on Enterprise Architecture Challenges and Responses (WEACR 2009) brings together practitioners of various roles in companies such as chief technology officers, chief information officers, enterprise architects, business process planners, designers, theoreticians and researchers in enterprise architecture to exchange and share their experiences, new ideas, and research results in applying enterprise architectures to their field. We particularly focus on challenges and hard problems faced by companies and practitioners and how they resolved such problems. Therefore we expect the attendees to bring the problems from their environment along with potential solutions or any innovative ideas for this field.

WEACR 2009 encourages contributions on the topics that include but not limited to:

Topics of Interest

- Challenges in enterprise architecture
- General and specific problems
- Organizational, technical and environmental problems
- Responses in enterprise architecture
- Methods to deal with general problems
- Experience of solving specific problems
- Application of existing and emerging technologies including SOA/BPM/etc
- New methodologies and technologies for enterprise architecture
- Industrial experiences in applying enterprise architecture
- Success stories
- Failure stories
